Haley,

Thank you so much for getting back to me. Please see below answers:

1. My title was Assistant Parish Attorney, I reported mainly to Randy Ligh (Senior Special Assistant Parish Attorney) who reported to Lea Anne Batson (Parish Attorney) while employed I had many duties including but not limited to:
    a. Handling sales tax rules for the city, sewer user fee cases for the city, traffic court for the city, collection for the coroner, bond forfeiture hearings for the city, subrogation for the city.

As we discussed, please contact the coroner's office regarding your second question. As for question three, I believe my initial letter advising the Board of my position and understanding of the law and the matter at hand is sufficient and does not require any supplementation at this time. Thank you for your time and efforts.

Sincerely,

Blake A. Pino
