Dear Ms. Horn,

I was not meaning that it was a financial hardship. No more than everyone has endured with covid. I was meaning that I only make 225.00 a month with this position and feel that $1,000.00 is a harsh penalty for me filling out my paperwork wrong. I have not tried to do anything wrong on any of this but I did. I am sorry for it I really feel horrible that my husband has to help pay such a large fine. I am new at this and just truly didn't mean for this to happen. It was an honest mistake and I really would appreciate also I pray that you reconsider this fine.

Thanks you
Julie Godwin Lott
