LOUISIANA BOARD OF ETHICS
Minutes
October 2, 2026

The Board of Ethics met on October 2, 2026 at 10:11 a.m. in the LaBelle Room on the first floor of the LaSalle Building located at 617 North Third Street, Baton Rouge, Louisiana with Members Amato, Bryant, Colomb, Crigler, Danos, Davis, Fremin, Grand, Grimley, Huval, Nowlin, Roberts and Whipple present. Board Member Scott was absent. Also present were the Ethics Administrator, David Bordelon; the Executive Secretary, Carolyn Abadie Landry; and Counsel Tracy Barker, Jessica Meiners, Charles Reeves and Kelsey Simmons.

Ms. Willie Ann Turner Washington, appeared before the Board to request a waiver in Docket No. 26-301 regarding a $2,000 campaign finance late fee assessed against Ms. Washington, an unsuccessful candidate for Clerk of Court, East Carroll Parish, in the October 12, 2019 election, whose 10-G Campaign finance disclosure report was filed 98 days late. In its capacity as the Supervisory Committee on Campaign Finance Disclosure and after hearing from Ms. Washington, on motion made, seconded and unanimously passed, the Board waived the campaign finance late fees.

Attorney Alesia Ardoin representing Steven Jackson, appeared before the Board in Docket 25-533 regarding the impact of Act 777 on the Board's decision to suspend all but $1,000 of the $2,500 late fee assessed against Steven Jackson, State Representative - District 2, for filing his 2022 Tier 2 Candidate personal financial disclosure 855 days late. After hearing from Ms. Ardoin, on motion made, seconded and unanimously passed, the Board deferred the matter to the November meeting.

On motion made, seconded and unanimously passed, the Board agreed to take action on Consent Agenda and Consent Opinion items G1-G27 en globo subject to any items being removed from the en globo listing for further discussion.

On motion made, seconded and unanimously passed, the Board adopted the staff recommendations on items G1-G27, excluding items G8, G17, G19, G23 and G25, taking the following action:

The Board considered an advisory opinion request in Docket No. 26-421 regarding whether the Code of Governmental Ethics permits Jeanne' Lynch to continue working for Southern Surveillance Company, while she is employed as a Care Connections Specialist with the Department of Child and Family Services ("DCFS"). On motion made, seconded and unanimously passed, the Board concluded that the Code of Governmental Ethics will not prohibit Ms. Lynch's continued work with Southern Surveillance, while she is employed by DCFS as a Child Welfare Specialist in Care Connections Licensing for the Child Welfare Division, provided she continues to adhere to the following limitations and safeguards: here, the services for which she is compensated by virtue of her continued work as a private investigator for Southern Surveillance would be: (1) bona fide and actually performed by Ms. Lynch; (2) not within the course of her official duties as a Child Welfare Specialist; (3) not prohibited by Section 1112 of the Code of Governmental Ethics or any applicable post-employment provisions; and (4) neither performed for nor compensated by any person who has or is seeking to obtain a contractual, other business, or financial relationship with her agency, Care Connections Licensing for the DCFS Child Welfare Division, or who conducts operations or activities that are regulated by her agency, or who has substantial economic interests which may be substantially affected by the performance or nonperformance of her official duty as a Child Welfare Specialist and continues to satisfy the required conditions of Section 1111C(2) of the Code of Governmental Ethics.

The Board considered an advisory opinion request in Docket No. 26-449 regarding whether the Code of Governmental Ethics permits Raven Rye to continue her part-time employment with Finding a Better Me, LLC ("FBM"), while she is employed as a Foster Care Supervisor with the Department of Child and Family Services ("DCFS"). On motion made, seconded and unanimously passed, the Board concluded that the Code of Governmental Ethics does not prohibit Ms. Rye's continued part-time employment with FBM while employed by DCFS as a Foster Care Supervisor in the Foster Care Unit for the Shreveport Office, provided Ms. Rye continues to adhere to the following limitations and safeguards: here, the services for which she is compensated by virtue of her part-time employment with FBM are: (1) bona fide and actually performed by Ms. Rye; (2) not within the course of her official duties as a Foster Care Supervisor; (3) not prohibited by La. R.S. 42:1112 or any applicable post-employment provisions; and (4) neither performed for nor compensated by any person who has or is seeking to obtain a contractual, other business, or financial relationship with her agency, the Foster Care Unit for the DCFS Shreveport Office, or who conducts operations or activities that are regulated by her agency, or who has substantial economic interests which may be substantially affected by the performance or nonperformance of her official duty as a Foster Care Supervisor. Further, Ms. Rye continues to satisfy the required conditions of Section 1111C(2) of the Code of Governmental Ethics.

The Board considered an advisory opinion request in Docket No. 26-485 regarding whether Tishia Boldene's company, Squeezy Fresh Juice & Cuzins LLC ("Squeezy Fresh"), is prohibited from entering into a subcontractor agreement with Chartwells Higher Education ("Chartwells"), to operate as a food and beverage vendor at LSU New Orleans while her husband works at LSU New Orleans. On motion made, seconded and unanimously passed, the Board concluded that the Code of Governmental Ethics does not prohibit the company, Squeezy Fresh, from entering into a subcontractor agreement with Chartwells, provided the subcontract is not under the supervision or jurisdiction of Tishia Boldene's husband's agency, the Office of Facility Service at LSU New Orleans.

The Board considered an advisory opinion and a proposed disqualification plan in Docket No. 26-493 regarding Amy Littleton, principal at Union Parish High School, and her sister, Lori Withers, teacher at Union Parish High School. On motion made, seconded and unanimously passed, the Board adopted the proposed advisory opinion and approved the proposed disqualification plan submitted on behalf of Ms. Littleton and Ms. Withers, as it is sufficient to prevent violations under Section 1112B(1) of the Code of Governmental Ethics and meets the Board's requirements pursuant to Louisiana Administrative Code Title 52, Chapter 14, Section 1402. Additionally, since Lori Withers was employed at Union Parish High School for more than one year prior to Amy Littleton being named Principal at Union Parish High School, the employment of Amy Littleton and Lori Withers in the same agency is not prohibited by La. R.S. 42:1119A.

The Board considered an advisory opinion request in Docket No. 26-497 regarding whether the Code of Governmental Ethics prohibits the employment of the daughter of Jason Dyer, the Chief of Administration for the Kenner Fire Department (the "KFD"), with the KFD. On motion made, seconded and unanimously passed, the Board concluded that the Code of Governmental Ethics would prohibit Mr. Dyer's daughter from employment as a Communications Officer within the KFD while Mr. Dyer serves as Chief of Administration.

The Board considered an advisory opinion request in Docket No. 26-498 regarding whether the Code of Governmental Ethics prohibits a teacher at Beekman Charter School

("Beekman"), from continuing to work for Beekman if elected to the Morehouse Parish School Board. On motion made, seconded and unanimously passed, the Board concluded that the Code of Governmental Ethics prohibits a teacher at Beekman from continuing that employment if elected to the Morehouse Parish School Board.

The Board considered an advisory opinion request in Docket No. 26-500 regarding whether the Code of Governmental Ethics prohibits Jourdan Alsobrook from participation in a private leadership program (the "Program") operated by Baton Rouge Alliance for Students, a non-profit corporation ("BRAS") while she is employed by the Louisiana Department of Education. On motion made, seconded and unanimously passed, the Board concluded that the Code of Governmental Ethics does not prohibit Ms. Alsobrook from participating in the Program or participating in any matters relating to BRAS. Further, her participation in the Program does not represent a transaction that requires disclosure.

The Board considered an advisory opinion request in Docket No. 26-502 regarding whether the Code of Governmental Ethics prohibits Brittany Tilman, an employee with the Louisiana Department of Education, from operating MetaCoach Crafted ("MCC"), a business that provides pedagogical teacher coaching and instruction services. On motion made, seconded and unanimously passed, the Board concluded that the Code of Governmental Ethics permits Ms. Tilman and MCC to provide services to Louisiana schools, but it would prohibit her and MCC from providing services to any individual or legal entity which has or is seeking to obtain a business or financial relationship with the Office of Teaching & Learning; conducts operations or activities which are regulated by the Office of Teaching & Learning; or has substantial economic interests which may be substantially affected by the performance or nonperformance of Ms. Tilman's official duty.

The Board considered an advisory opinion request in Docket No. 26-503 regarding whether the Code of Governmental Ethics prohibits Lisa Johnson's outside employment with Delta Head Start ("Delta") while she serves as a member of the Madison Parish School Board ("MPSB"). On motion made, seconded and unanimously passed, the Board concluded that the Code of Governmental Ethics prohibits Ms. Johnson from receiving compensation from Delta while she serves as a member of the MSPB and Delta has a business, financial or contractual relationship with MPSB.

The Board considered an advisory opinion request in Docket No. 26-504 regarding as to whether the Code of Governmental Ethics prohibits Zuri Poullard, an Acadia Parish Police Juror from contracting with the Acadia Parish Library. On motion made, seconded and unanimously passed, the Board concluded that the Code of Governmental Ethics prohibits Mr. Poullard from continuing to provide compensated janitorial services to the Acadia Parish Library while he serves on the Acadia Parish Police Jury.

The Board considered an advisory opinion request and proposed disqualification plan in Docket No. 26-509 regarding the employment of Michael Vicknair and his son, Jacob Vicknair, with the Louisiana Department of Transportation and Development in District 07, Unit 870. On motion made, seconded and unanimously passed, the Board concluded that the Code of Governmental Ethics does not prohibit the continued employment of Michael Vicknair and/or Jacob Vicknair since neither immediate family member is an agency head pursuant to Section 1102(3) of the Code of Governmental Ethics, thus the employment of the Vicknairs in the same agency is not prohibited by Section 1119A of the Code of Governmental Ethics. Further, the proposed disqualification plan submitted pursuant to Section 1112C of the Louisiana Code of Governmental Ethics is approved, as it is sufficient to prevent violations under La. R.S.

42:1112B(1), and it meets the Board's requirements pursuant to Louisiana Administrative Code Title 52, Chapter 14, Section 1402.

The Board considered a Disqualification Plan request in Docket No. 26-510 from Stanley Ard, on behalf of the Louisiana Department of Transportation and Development regarding a disqualification plan allowing a promoted employee to recuse himself from any matters relating to his brother's employment. On motion made, seconded and unanimously passed, the Board approved the disqualification plan since it meets the requirements of the Board pursuant to Louisiana Administrative Code Title 52, Chapter 14, Section 1402.

The Board considered an advisory opinion request in Docket No. 26-515 regarding whether the Code of Governmental Ethics prohibits Julie Miller, a member of the Calcasieu Parish Public Trust Authority, to receive compensation from First Federal Bank of Louisiana ("FFBL") while it transacts business with the Calcasieu Public Trust Authority. On motion made, seconded and unanimously passed, the Board concluded that Julie Miller is not prohibited from being employed as Private Banking Manager and Senior Vice President of FFBL, provided that she recuses herself from voting in favor of FFBL, and discloses the reason by forwarding a disclosure form (Form 402) to the Board of Ethics. She shall also file a Form 405 annually by May 15th in accordance with La. R.S. 42:1114A disclosing income she received from FFBL in the prior calendar year. A copy of Form 402 and 405 are available at ethics.la.gov/disclosures.

The Board considered an advisory opinion request and proposed disqualification plan in Docket No. 26-519 regarding Gaven Melancon, a correctional officer, and his mother and stepmother's employment as communications supervisors with the St. Martin Parish Sheriff's Office. On motion made, seconded and unanimously passed, the Board rejected the proposed disqualification plan as unnecessary and insufficient. Given the lack of specificity of the disqualification plan, and Mr. Melancon's not currently being employed in the same division as his mother, this proposed plan is not sufficient to prevent violations of Section 1112B(1) of the Code of Governmental Ethics; however, no plan is needed at this time because Mr. Melancon does not currently serve in the same agency as any of his immediate family. Should this change, Mr. Melancon's mother should recuse herself from any decision related to Mr. Melancon's individual employment, compensation, and discipline and submit a proposed disqualification plan at the earliest opportunity.

The Board considered an advisory opinion request in Docket No. 26-521 regarding whether the Code of Governmental Ethics prohibits LG Dance Studio, LLC, a business owned by Gretchen Jones, from entering into a contract with Louisiana Tech University ("LTU"), while Gretchen Jones is an adjunct instructor at LTU. On motion made, seconded and unanimously passed, the Board concluded that the Code of Governmental Ethics does not prohibit Ms. Jones' business, LG Dance Studio, LLC, from entering into contract with LTU, while she is an adjunct instructor in LTU's College of Education and Human Sciences, provided the contract is not under the supervision or jurisdiction of her agency.

The Board considered an advisory opinion request in Docket No. 26-530 regarding whether the Code of Governmental Ethics prohibits Michael Lee Jack from receiving royalties while he serves as an employee of Louisiana Department of Public Safety and Corrections ("DPSC"). On motion made, seconded and unanimously passed, the Board concluded that the Code of Governmental Ethics prohibits Mr. Jack from receiving compensation from the Corrections Distributors while he is employed by DPSC.

The Board considered an advisory opinion request in Docket No. 26-532 from Tricia Galjour, on behalf of the Veterans Memorial District Board Ward 10 (the "Memorial District") regarding as to whether the Code of Governmental Ethics prohibits John Garner, a member of the Memorial District, from receiving compensation from a public entity who has a financial relationship with the Memorial District. On motion made, seconded and unanimously passed, the Board concluded that the Code of Governmental Ethics does not prohibit Mr. Garner from receiving compensation from the Ambulance District while he serves as a member of the Memorial District.

The Board considered an advisory opinion request in Docket No. 26-545 from John Fontenot, regarding as to whether the Code of Governmental Ethics prohibits his provision of certain services to a new employer following the termination of his employment with the Louisiana Department of Transportation and Development ("DOTD"). On motion made, seconded and unanimously passed, the Board concluded that the Code of Governmental Ethics prohibits Mr. Fontenot, for a period of two years, from assisting others in matters in which he participated while at DOTD. The Code of Governmental Ethics does not prohibit him from assisting others in matters relating to DOTD in which he had no involvement while at DOTD.

The Board considered an advisory opinion request in Docket No. 26-569 regarding whether the Code of Governmental Ethics prohibits Gerri Lipsey, the daughter-in-law of Rowena Cherie Lipsey, a member of the Concordia Parish Hospital Service District Number One d/b/a Trinity Medical, from providing compensated services to Trinity Medical through a contract between HealthPro Heritage and Trinity Medical. On motion made, seconded and unanimously passed, the Board concluded that the Code of Governmental Ethics prohibits Gerri Lipsey from providing speech and language therapy services to Trinity Medical through the contract between Trinity Medical and HealthPro Heritage while Rowena Cherie Lipsey serves as a member of the Concordia Parish Hospital Service District Number One d/b/a Trinity Medical. Gerri Lipsey is not prohibited from providing speech and language therapy services to other persons and medical centers. She will be required to file an annual financial disclosure statement pursuant to La. R.S. 42:1114A.

The Board declined to render an advisory opinion in Docket No. 26-625 regarding whether the Code of Governmental Ethics prohibits certain transactions since the request was made by a state employee at a university regarding a non-profit that will house college students and they neglected to provide additional information as requested in July 2026.

The Board considered an advisory opinion request in Docket No. 26-627 regarding whether the Code of Governmental Ethics prohibits the continued employment of Korey Kimball, a member of the Port of Iberia Board of Commissioners with a company that transacts business with the Port of Iberia. On motion made, seconded and unanimously passed, the Board concluded that the Code of Governmental Ethics prohibits Mr. Kimball from continuing his employment with Bayou Companies while it has a contractual relationship with the Port of Iberia and he serves as a member of the Port of Iberia Board of Commissioners.

The Board considered an advisory opinion request in Docket No. 26-499 regarding whether the Code of Governmental Ethics permits the immediate family members of the Pointe Coupee Fire District No. 3 (the "Fire District") Fire Chief and Officers to serve as volunteers or contract firefighters for the Fire District. On motion made, seconded and unanimously passed, the Board the Board deferred the matter to a future meeting.

The Board considered an advisory opinion request and proposed disqualification plan in Docket No. 26-520 regarding Hunter Martin, a detective and his father, Ricky Martin's employment as a correctional investigator with the St. Martin Parish Sheriff's Office. On motion made, seconded and unanimously passed, the Board rejected the proposed disqualification plan as unnecessary and insufficient to prevent violations of Section1112B(1) of the Code of Governmental Ethics, given that Hunter Martin is not currently employed in the same division as his father and the lack of specificity of the disqualification plan. However, no plan is needed at this time because Hunter Martin does not currently serve in the same agency as any of his immediate family. Should this change, Ricky Martin should recuse himself from any decision related to Hunter's individual employment, compensation, and discipline and submit a proposed disqualification plan at the earliest opportunity.

The Board considered a request for approval of an amended disqualification plan in Docket No. 26-529 regarding the employment of a husband and wife employed at Jefferson Rise Charter School. On motion made, seconded and unanimously passed, the Board approved the disqualification plan and concluded that the proposed disqualification plan for Kathleen Sullivan and her husband Zachary Moss is sufficient to prevent violations under Section 1112B(1) of the Code of Governmental Ethics and meets the Board's requirements pursuant to Louisiana Administrative Code Title 52, Chapter 14, Section 1402.

The Board considered an advisory opinion request in Docket No. 26-568 regarding whether the Code of Governmental Ethics prohibits the outside employment of Kristy Cobb, a permit clerk for Terrebonne Parish Planning and Zoning District, with local contractor HMSE. On motion made, seconded and unanimously passed, the Board concluded that the Code of Governmental Ethics prohibits Ms. Cobb from providing compensated bookkeeping services to HSME while employed with Terrebonne Parish Consolidated Government.

The Board considered a request for clarification of an advisory opinion in Docket No. 26-584 issued to the Ouachita Parish Police Jury regarding whether the Code of Governmental Ethics prohibits the appointment of a candidate to the position of Parish Treasurer if the candidate's immediate family member's company provides engineering services to the Parish. On motion made, seconded and unanimously passed, the Board adopted the clarified advisory opinion which will be corrected to identify Ms. Hammons's father as Randy Hammons. The advisory opinion will also clarify that neither Ms. Hammons nor any employee under her direct supervision should participate in any transactions involving her father's company.

On motion made, seconded and unanimously passed, the Board reconsidered Docket No. 26-470 regarding an advisory opinion request as to whether the Code of Governmental Ethics prohibits Purple Martin Conservation Initiative, Inc. ("PMCI"), a nonprofit organization operated by Krista Adams, an employee of LSU Veterinary Medicine, from entering into transactions with the LSU AgCenter. On motion made, seconded and unanimously passed, the Board concluded that the Code of Governmental Ethics would permit Ms. Adams and PMCI to provide grant funding for the employment of an intern at the LSU School of Renewable Natural Resources, part of the Veterinary Medicine program.

The Board considered the following general business agenda items:

On motion made, seconded and unanimously passed, the Board approved the August 6th, 2026 Executive Board meeting minutes.

Board Members Davis, Bryant and Roberts recused themselves from voting on the September 3rd and September 4th, 2026 Board meeting minutes.

In its capacity as the Supervisory Committee on Campaign Finance Disclosure, the Board unanimously reduced to $1,000 based on Rule 1205C and declined to waive the campaign finance late fees assessed against the following:

Docket No. 26-452 from Hunter W. Lundy, 2025 SUPP, of a $2500 late fee.

In its capacity as the Supervisory Committee on Campaign Finance Disclosure, the Board unanimously reduced to $600 based on Rule 1205C and suspended all but $200 based on future compliance of the campaign finance late fees assessed against the following:

Docket No. 26-459 from Terence Vinson, 2025 SUPP, of a $1000 late fee.

Board Member Huval recused himself from voting in Docket No. 26-124.

In its capacity as the Supervisory Committee on Campaign Finance Disclosure, the Board considered a waiver request in Docket No 26-124 regarding two (2) $1,000.00 campaign finance late fees (total $2,000.00) assessed against Steven E. "Steve" Pylant, an unsuccessful candidate for Franklin Parish Sheriff in the October 11, 2025 election, whose 30-P and 10-P campaign finance disclosure reports were filed 35 and 42 days late. On motion made, seconded and unanimously passed, the Board suspended all of the campaign finance late fees for each report based on future compliance.

The Board considered a Lobbying waiver request in Docket No. 26-524 regarding the $250 late fee assessed against Royce "Woody" Rials for the late filing of the May 2026 Lobbying Expenditure Report. On motion made, seconded and unanimously passed, the Board waived the late fee since this was Mr. Rial’s first late fee.

The Board considered a waiver request in Docket No. 26-430 from Kelvin V. McCoy, Mayor/ Boyce/ Rapides, regarding a $250 late fee assessed for filing his amended 2023 Tier 3 Annual personal financial disclosure 10 days late. On motion made, seconded and unanimously passed, the Board declined to waive the late fee since additional information was requested and no response has been received to date.

The Board considered a waiver request in Docket No. 26-437 submitted by Mr. Donovan Archote, Orleans Parish Communication District, regarding a $1,100 late fee assessed for filing his 2023 Tier 2.1 Annual personal financial disclosure 22 days late. On motion made, seconded and unanimously passed, the Board suspended all but $250 of the personal financial disclosure late fee based on future compliance. The $250 is payable within 20 days and if payment is not received within 20 days, the full amount of the late fee becomes due and owing.

In its capacity as the Supervisory Committee for Campaign Finance, the Board considered an untimely waiver request in Docket No. 26-544 regarding the $480 campaign finance late fee assessed against Jim Morgan, an unsuccessful candidate for Mayor, City of St. George, East Baton Rouge Parish, in the March 29, 2025 election, whose 2025 Supplemental campaign finance disclosure report was filed 11 days late. On motion made, seconded and unanimously passed, the Board considered the request. On motion made, seconded and unanimously passed, the Board suspended all but $200 of the campaign finance late fees based on future compliance with the Code of Governmental Ethics.
