COMMENTS:

Thomas Hunter Landry is requesting a waiver request for the late filing of his 2018 PFD. Mr. Landry stated he is new to politics and has not had any assistance when completing his disclosures. Mr. Landry stated it was a misunderstanding that led to his failure to file. In February 2020, he received a notice contacted the CF Division and spoke with a CF Compliance Officer regarding his supplemental reports. He assumed that these reports covered the Annual PFD filing requirements. When he received the Late Fee Order, he contacted the BOE and learned that there are two different departments in respect to reporting his finances. The PFD Director informed him that a NOD was issued to him on 9/6/2019. Mr. Landry stated that he never received the NOD and that the signature on the Green Card does not belong to him or anyone in his household. He stated that he now understands his error and filed a complaint 2018 immediately. Mr. Landry stated he apologies for the misunderstanding and would appreciate the Ethics Board consideration in waiving his fee. This is Mr. Landry's first late filing and first late fee.
