COMMENTS: Please note that in his 23 years of public service, he has never accepted campaign donations from the public or any other third party. This past election cycle was the first instance in which he has accepted any campaign donations, which totaled $2,950.00. Therefore, prior to this past election cycle, he never had to file a Campaign Finance Disclosure Report. He did not have a clear understanding of the filing requirements and any mistake which was made was certainly unintentional. He has disbursed all of the funds in his campaign account following his reelection as he does not intend on running for public office after this term. He has always strive to be the best public servant possible and to abide by any campaign finance requirements for public officials.

RE: Late Fee Assessment for the October 12, 2019 Election
2020 Supplemental Campaign Finance Disclosure Report

Dear Ms. Horn:

Please accept this correspondence as a formal request for waiver of the $1,000.00 late fee assessment or alternatively a reduction of said fee. Pursuant to our conversation, you advised that a second request for waiver should be submitted for the late filing of the 2020 Supplemental Reports. I did not have a clear understanding of the filing requirements and any mistake which was made was unintentional. I disbursed all of the funds in my campaign account and closed the account and filed the report in June 2020. Again, this was an unintentional error on my part.

A previous request for waiver has been filed with your office. In the event you need additional information, please feel free to contact me at the address above or at my email address: alvin.stpierre@stjamesla.com. You can also reach me on my cell at (225) 806-0702.

Sincerely,

Alvin "Shark" St. Pierre, Jr.
