COMMENTS: During the years in which reports were due, he was only required to file the Supplemental Reports because he loaned himself in excessive of $10,000 to finance his campaign. He did not receive contributions or make payments on that loan after the election, as reflected in my reports. After a few years of filing the supplemental reports, he did not receive notice to file another supplemental report. His wife, Melanie Lockett, called your office on his behalf to inquire about the requirement and was advised that he no longer needed to file Supplemental Reports for the 2005 campaign.
