COMMENTS: Willie Brooks request a waiver and states the following: His financial manager took a job in Florida assuming that everything was closed, and no more information was needed. He is a 15 years' law enforcement officer. He has been going through a great deal as an essential worker and has been praying that he doesn't take COVID-19 home to his wife and small children. He has been tested 3 times already for COVID. Please suspend this amount so don't have to use any of his earned income to pay it off. It's an error that was overlooked and he apologizes.

OTHER LATE FEE INFORMATION

Good afternoon,

I pray that this letter finds you well. I am requesting if you could suspend my fee $320.00. My financial manager took a job in Florida assuming that everything was closed, and no more information was needed. I am a 15 years law enforcement officer. I have been going through a great deal as an essential worker and have been praying that I don't take COVID-19 home to wife my and small children. I have been tested 3 times already for COVID. Please suspend this amount so don't have to use any of my earned income to pay it off. It's an error that was overlooked and I apologize.
