COMMENTS:

Mr. Weaver stated that he submitted his disclosure once he received his notice in August 2020 he submitted his report electronically on the same day. In February of 2021 when completing his next report, he was informed by the PFD: Compliance Office that his 2019 PFD was still outstanding. He then realized he did not click the "Submit" button at the bottom of the screen. Mr. Weaver stated his failure to file was a mistake and going forward he will have someone "more computer savvy" to help him when filing electronically. This is Mr. Weaver's first late filing and first late fee assessment.

To the Board of Ethics,

I Marshal Dan Weaver kindly request the Board waive the fee stating that I was late for an unbelievable 167 days on my Personal Financial Disclosure Statement for 2019. Upon learning in February 2021 that I was late I immediately (Same Day) filed the report electronically.

Upon receiving my notice through the mail in August 2020 I sent the report electronically, again on the same day, I received my notice to do so. I never after that time received any notice that it had not been received. On 1 February when filing my next report a was told on the phone by a very nice lady at the Personnel Financial Disclosure that the report had not been received. I was very upset that the report was not received. After talking with the Personnel Financial Disclosure Office I then saw where after I had generated the report there was another button that I was supposed to hit where I guess I had failed to actually send the report. At this point, I immediately sent the report and called to verify that it was received.

I am admitting that the mistake was on my part and not blaming anyone but myself but I would never intentionally not file a report to your office.

In the future I will have someone that is more computer savvy that will help me sending reports electronically which will hopefully prevent this from ever happening again.

Sincerely,

Dan Weaver
Minden City Marshal
(Ward 1 Webster Parish)
